EDUCATION

Accepted onto Cambridge DELTA (Diploma in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages).

DELTA is the gold-standard Level 7 award for teachers of English language. This master's level qualification provides the underpinning knowledge required to be an expert in the classroom.

2010 August 2–27 CELTA

The CELTA is awarded by Cambridge ESOL (formerly UCLES) and accredited at level 5 by both the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority and level 5, as well, by the National Qualifications Framework for England, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The Cambridge ESOL CELTA was originally a pre-service teacher training programme operated by International House. The current Cambridge CELTA replaced the RSA/Cambridge CELTA in 2001. In 1996, RSA/Cambridge CELTA replaced the RSA/Cambridge CTEFLA (the Certificate in Teaching English as a Foreign Language to Adults), jointly administered by the Royal Society of Arts (RSA) and UCLES. The RSA/Cambridge CTEFLA replaced the RSA Certificate in 1985.
